

Education Resources

Stefanus Alliance

Booklets offering a popular introduction to FoRB available in English, Arabic, Burmese, Chinese, Hindi, Kyrgyz, Norwegian, Russian, Spanish, Turkish, Urdu, Vietnamese:

- An introduction to Freedom of Religion or Belief
- Freedom of Religion or Belief for everyone - women in focus
- FoRB, human rights and sustainable growth
- Belief and belonging: Indigenous identity and FoRB

FORB Learning

Digital Learning Platform with find resources to help individuals, communities and decision-makers learn, reflect upon and promote freedom of religion or belief for all. The platform includes resources for personal study, including short videos and written material, and for group trainings.

OSCE - Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights

Eight awareness-raising videos titled 'Getting (the right to) freedom of religion or belief right.' Videos with English, Russian and French subtitles which are already on YouTube; also available with Ukrainian, Kazakh, Bosnian, Polish, Tajik, Turkmen, and Uzbek subtitles.

OSCE - Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (cont)

2007 Toledo Guiding Principles on Teaching about Religions and Beliefs in Public Schools

Search for Common Ground

Special Module on Freedom of Religion and/or Belief within Search for Common Ground's Approach to Religious Engagement toolkit

British Council

Religion and belief is one of the 7 equality areas actively promoted in the British Council's Equality policy and Equality, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) strategy

Geneva Office for Human Rights, Education (GO-HRE) - Church of Latter Day Saints

A series of lessons, videos on human rights education, including freedom of religion or belief. The lessons are available in multiple languages, currently English, French, Portuguese, Spanish, Tagalog and Vietnamese

Hardwired Global

Training videos, online training course, freedom guidebooks, and research to help communities better understand their rights and how to protect them.